Press Release

Brussels, 12/11/2019 – Hudson Benelux has announced its acquisition of Alcor Executive. From now on, the Luxembourg office will operate under the Hudson Benelux brand.

Alcor Executive offers a broad range of HR services that enable organizations to achieve their people objectives: executive search, assessment & development, outplacement as well as tailor-made career and personal development.

“Since the Management Buy-Out, Hudson Belgium has charted a new & independent course, continuously exploring our options to solidify our brand, transform our company and identify growth opportunities” explains Serge Gommé, Head of Hudson Netherlands & Luxembourg. “These ambitions have led us to the recent start-up of Hudson Netherlands. The acquisition of Alcor Executive supports Hudson’s strategy to strengthen its service offering and expand our business across the Benelux landscape.”

Over 35 years of experience and a rich heritage in HR consultancy, make Hudson a market leader in Belgium. Since its inception in 1982, Hudson’s business and service offering have evolved to meet the unique demands of the dynamic and rapidly evolving HR market. In Belgium, Hudson has become the preferred HR partner both for the private and public sector, because of its strong values and the commitment of all its employees in assisting start-ups, SMEs and multinationals.

“To be the leading HR service provider, Hudson has always made customer intimacy the corner stone of every decision it has ever made.” says Gommé. “By fully integrating Alcor’s clients, services and personnel within the Hudson Benelux brand, we want to continue to deliver high-quality HR services tailored to the needs of our local clients, with the support of Hudson R&D and in line with its international standards and experience.”
